

FIRST JEWISH GOVERNOR TAKES FAMILY TO "THIRD HOUSE" CONFERENCE

Gov. M. D. Alexander and family—the governor at upper right, Mrs. Alexander at upper left, Miss Leha Alexander at lower right.

An interesting family party at the conference of state governors to be held in Boston, Aug. 24 to 27, will be the Alexanders of Idaho—Gov. Moses D. Alexander, his wife and their daughter, Miss Leha Alexander. Gov. Alexander has the distinction of being first Jewish governor ever elected in any state in the Union. He will take a prominent part in the conference program.
